THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE IN LIBERIA.—Commander Wm. N. Jeffries, of the United States steamer Swatara, lately cruising on the African coast, writes to the Navy Department an account of a visit to Monrovia, in February last, when he called upon the President of that Colony, and found evidences of the success of the attempt to plant civilization of Africa; though he thinks that there is a great need of capital and want of agricultural laborers, too many of the immigrants being from Northern cities and of mixed blood, who are unable to stand the climate. Conversing with some of the leading members of the Government, on the questions now agitating our own country, Commander J. found them unanimously of the opinion that universal suffrage to emancipated negroes would be injudicious, using the argument, "we do not allow natives among us to vote, unless they have been educated in our schools, believing them to be no more competent to understand the limited questions of internal and external policy of this little republic than the comparatively uneducated colored masses at home (they all allude to America as home) are able to understand your numerous and complicated ones."

The following picture of the Radical party is from the pencil of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. The likeness is striking:

"The men at Washington and Albany sold their country, they sold their humanity and their honor, and the trusts that were put upon them by their constituents. They were debauchers of the young; they were the traitors; they that lifted the sword were not half so much traitors; they that despoiled the old banner and trod it under foot; they that fired upon the government of the United States, were not so much traitors as were those vermin who were crawling under the foundations and destroying, by corruption, the vital power of the government."

IRON TIES vs. ROPE,

FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3 310 coils against 25,-193 last year."

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this in-built to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN. WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES, TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TASTES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LIGHTNING BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE NEGRO ELECTOR.

The white supporters of the Radical party in our Western counties have manifested as much opposition to negro office holding as any portion of our people. They have denied the charge that the Radicals were in favor of negro equality and were advocates of negro office-holding. The matter has, however, been made palpable by the election of negroes to the Convention and to the Legislature, and by the appointment of negro magistrates and Commissioners of towns and cities by Gov. Holden.

The Western white Radicals have, however, disclaimed all participation in this action because of its offensiveness to our Western people. What will they now say, since A. H. Galloway, the colored man has been put upon the Electoral ticket, to cast the vote of the people of the State for President and Vice President of the United States? His name stands on the ticket as the equal and associate of Messrs. Laffin, Holden, Stilly, Brogden, Badham, McDonald, and Gen. Barringer, and must be voted for on the general ticket. Those who occupy the same position on the ticket and who vote for him cannot hereafter resist the charge of favoring negro equality.—The association is about as close as the formation of any other co-partnership, and is a full committal to the doctrine. Our co-temporaries and friends must hold them to the committal. It may be that after this, Galloway, who only claims to be half white, may really be an equal, not only in form but in fact. Do the Western Radicals admit it? If, so, let them no longer squirm when charged with it.

THE MARR'S NEST.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce confirms the telegram we received some days ago, in regard to arms received in that city. It makes it merry over the hullaballoo which Gov. Holden and Gen. Miles have made over the obtaining arms in this State.

TEARS.—The "Woman Insulter" mentions it as a significent fact that Mr. Whitson, the preacher, who is said to be a paid Radical canvasser in this County, in a speech which he delivered some days ago at Council's store, brought tears from the eyes of Radicals and Democrats! He certainly must have used onions that time instead of collards. If it be true, he is doing more by his political harangues than he has done by his preaching, in making people cry.

CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.

First District.—It is said that John R. French, the present representative of the first District in Congress has been forced off the track by the Executive Committee, and Mr. Cobb is left alone in the contest with Judge Barnes. Merit is no test of Radical preference, if so, the election of Judge Barnes, would be easy. But the negro majority in that District, unless we could hope for their restoration to a sounder mind, makes the contest uncertain. Judge Barnes is, however, carrying on a vigorous canvass and the true men of the District are rallying to him.

Second District.—Col. Kenan is bravely canvassing against large odds and is rapidly gaining upon his competitor. He and Maj. Hughes, the candidate for elector, are making a fine canvass.

Third District.—Col. McKoy we learn is pressing Col. Dockery to the wall. Col. D's inconsistent record makes him a vulnerable opponent and he finds in Col. McKoy a competitor worthy of his steel. Our friends are hopeful of Col. McKoy's election. Mr. Dobbin is making a fine impression.

Fourth District.—Col. Rogers is active in the canvass and so is our Elector, Col. Green. Dowcese we learn, speaks of course, confidently of success. We predict for him in this race the fate of all carpet baggers.—When the present Congress expires he will take "to hum;" the people of this District will have no further use for him.

Fifth District.—We learn that "Judge" Tourgee has at length succumbed to the will of the Executive Committee here, and left the drive to Windy Billy, who shows himself to be a man of pluck, without the fear of Holden before his eyes. We understand that Mr. Lash is also in the field, who can at least claim to be the candidate of the more respectable portion of the party. Mr. Lash's antecedents are not such as to expect him to get down in the scuffle with Windy Billy as Tourgee did, hence he may look for defeat. Billy Henderson has shown that he is not the man to be run over by a carpet-bagger, and he will prove too much for Mr. Lash. Col. Brown, who has taken no part in the family quarrel of the Radicals, we hope will beat them both, Mr. Robbins the Elector, puts Mr. Badham hors du combat, wherever they meet.

SIXTH DISTRICT.—From all quarters our friends speak confidently of the triumph ant election of Mr. Shober over Mr. Boyden. Mr. B. evidently reckoned without his host. But few who voted for him in the last canvass will vote for him now. Mr. Shober and Mr. Robbins, the Elector, are canvassing vigorously and our friends expect the best results.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.—Our prospects in this District are every way encouraging. The election of Mr. Durham is spoken of with full confidence. Messrs. Durham and McAfee are making an active canvass, and the re-action we learn is unprecedented.

PROCLAMATION.—Gov. Holden has issued a long Proclamation in the Standard, in which he ventures largely upon the ignorance and the credulity of the people, and evinces, if he is sincere in what he affirms, an amount of credulity and alarm, which no man in the State except himself, can appreciate, who understands the situation.

It is a rehash of the silly charges of the Standard, that there is an organized conspiracy against the legiss State governments, that the white people of the State are disposed to interfere with the exercise of suffrage by the blacks, that they are vindictive and hostile to the blacks, that organized associations, (meaning Democratic) are arming themselves in hostility to the National and State governments. We repeat all these are unfounded. If Gov. Holden entertains such ideas, which we can hardly credit, he is deceived himself and deceiving others.

It will be seen, that in violation of the Constitution, of the law of Congress and of Gen. Grant's order, he insists upon organizing the Detailed Militia in this State. If it were not contrary to a law of Congress, we should not object to the organization of the militia of North Carolina. No harm could grow of this. But the objects and aims of the Detailed Militia are unnecessary and unconstitutional, and can produce nothing but evil, and entail upon the tax payers of the State, an enormous burden. No sensible, quiet, peaceably disposed Republican in the State, that we have heard of, favors it. Wherever it is attempted the opposition to it is manifested at once. We want peace and quiet, but Governor Holden seems bent upon war. No good can result from his course.

RADICAL PARTIALITY.—There have been frequent instances in the South since the war, in which the Radical as well as the military authorities have shown a marked partiality towards negroes as against white offenders. Whites and blacks guilty of the same offences under the same circumstances have been dealt very differently by.

A noted case recently occurred at Portsmouth, Va., in which Radical partiality to the negro, overleaps all bounds of propriety. Months ago a white and a negro man were arrested, tried and convicted before the Courts, for an outrage upon the person of a white young woman. Both were condemned to be hung and both declared equally guilty. On the 8th instant the white man, Perkins, was hung at Portsmouth. The Radical Military Governor of Virginia, Wells, has commuted the sentence of the negro, Benj. Jefferson, to imprisonment for life. It is charged that political partiality influenced this action, as the Congressional District in which the outrage occurred, gives seven thousand negro majority.

ENLARGED.—The Baltimore daily and weekly Sun come to us in enlarged form.—We are glad to notice this evidence of its business prosperity, and wish it many years of constantly augmenting success. It is one of the best conducted business and news journals in the country.

Rev. Mr. Punshon, the eloquent English Methodist pulpit orator, has been offered $1,500 in gold to lecture six times in Boston.

EMIGRATION.

We have steadily admonished our people against leaving North Carolina for the Northwestern States. We know the times are hard, money scarce and our political status anything but comfortable, yet people of small means will find that there is nothing gained by spending their little means in travelling to reach a better country. If the means of our people were abundant, if their coffers were full of gold, then they might with propriety seek a country free from the present agitations which disturb, or if they had means enough to remove to upper California or Oregon and to purchase lands and settle themselves there, perhaps they could not be blamed for going there. We are told by an old resident of Southern Oregon that it is the finest country in the world to live and grow wheat and other cereals with little labor. But in the North West poor people find it as hard to struggle through life as in North Carolina.

We observe that many families who left our upper counties some months ago and went to Indiana and Illinois, are returning to their old homes. We have really heard of no one who has gone who is satisfied. After spending nearly all their means in travelling thither, they return poorer than when they left. It is better to stand by the old State and make it what we want it, by labor and skill. We have a climate unsurpassed, and under skillful tillage soils that can be made equal to the best. Our political condition can be improved by hard effort. Let us stand by the old North State.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

The Raleigh Standard of the 8th inst., makes a charge against the friends of Seymour in this State that ought not to be suffered to pass in silence. We feel confident that it is false, but if the Standard has any good evidence of its truth, we demand to know it. As a true friend to peace, as one who has been moderate and tolerant in our political course, we think we have a right to ask the Standard for its authority for charging the Democrats of North Carolina with a purpose to use arms against the Government. The Standard of the date above mentioned says:

"We learn on the best authority, that arms have been imported into this State, and distributed among members of Democratic organizations. These arms, which are not ordinary, but repeating rifles of various kinds, have been shipped to the interior in boxes. There is no doubt a purpose exists to use them against the government, and we call on every good citizen who would avoid the horrors of another war, to aid the authorities in preventing this distribution of arms for war purposes. No one denies the right of the people to have arms in their houses, or to use them for hunting and other peaceable purposes, but when arms of an extraordinary character are thus brought in by wholesale and distributed among a certain class, many of whom declare themselves hostile to the government, it is time for the friends of peace and good order to be on the alert."

We deny that there is any purpose on the part of Democrats to use arms against the government, or against any party, and we deny that arms have been imported for any such purpose. We call upon the Standard to show the contrary if it can; if not, retract the serious charge.

If the Standard can establish the charge, we promise to aid it in suppressing any such unlawful proceeding.

No doubt, sensationists or evil-disposed persons (who want to get up a fuss or get service in the militia) have promulgated such accusations for party purposes, and we hope the matter will be ferretted out.

If boxes of guns have been seen on the cars, they no doubt belonged to merchants who bought them for sale and who publicly advertise that they have such articles.

All good citizens are interested in maintaining peace. Peace and good order prevails in this section and we don't like to see a charge insinuating the contrary.

P. S.—Since writing and putting the above in type, we find in the Standard, of Saturday, the following correspondence between Gov. Holden and Gen. Miles on the subject. The reader will see that it gives no proof of the charge—the whole thing seems to be based on suspicion and hereasy testimony. We repeat, if there is evidence that any individual or individuals contemplate violating the peace, let it be known and let the person or persons be arrested forthwith.

We assure Gov. Holden and Gen. Miles that no arms have been brought to this place that cannot be legitimately accounted for. There have been about two dozen common shot guns brought here for sale, and a few pistols.

A number of axes with handles have been brought here in gun boxes, because they were sold as government axes and put up in gun boxes. We are particular in stating these facts for the information of Gen. Miles and Gov. Holden. And we also inform those officers that prominent Republicans here will endorse our statements.—Charlotte Democrat.

We are glad to add the testimony of our cotemporary, the Charlotte Democrat, to our own assurations in reference to the charges of Gov. Holden and Gen. Miles, against the Democrats. The whole affair seems to be made up by some one, as an electioneering trick, and we regret to see Gov. Holden treating it seriously.

EPISCOPAL GENERAL CONVENTION.—This body which will be in session for three weeks, in New York, is largely attended. We omitted to state the clerical delegates in attendance from this State: they are Rev. Drs. Mason, Hubbard, and Cheshire and Rev. A. A. Watson. Bishop Lee of Delaware preached the Convention sermon. It was strongly anti-ritualistic and evangelical and has been severely criticised by those opposed to his views. A very spicy debate sprung up on the proposition to print it, agreeably to custom, but the resolution was adopted. The diocese of Nebraska has been admitted into union with the Convention.

JUDGE ANDERSON MITCHELL.—We learn that certain Radicals are proclaiming that Judge Anderson Mitchell, affiliates with the Radical party. This is a falsehood, as we know. Judge Mitchell is as true to the cause of the country and of Constitutional government, as Wm. A. Graham, or any other man in the Conservative party, and he holds in detestation the principles of Radicalism, to our knowlege.—Statesville American.

A negro exhorter at Opelousas, Louisiana, told his congregation last week that what they lacked in guns they could make up in matches, adding: "They are cheap—five cents a box—and those who can't shoot can burn!" Send more troops to protect those lambs. Let us have peace.

IMPORTANT TO BANKRUPTS.

Opinion of Judge Brooks, in the matter of Assigning to Bankrupts a Homestead.

AT CHAMBERS, AT ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Sept. 4, 1868.—In the matter of A. E. Bankrupt.

By the certificate of Wm. A. Guthrie, Register, of the 24th July, 1868, this question is presented: Can real estate be set apart by the Assignee to the Bankrupt, in case of a deficiency in other property or effects, to answer the exemptions provided for by law?

I have examined with care the authorities cited by the Counsel representing the creditors who except to the report of the Assignee. And I have also read with interest the argument filed by the Attorney for the Bankrupt. The question has often arisen and given rise to animated discussion in my presence, but is now for the first time presented under the provisions of the Law for decision. I am well satisfied that a fair and proper construction of that language used in that part of the Bankruptcy act which relates to exemptions, as well as the true spirit and objects of the Law, will not justify or authorize the action of the Assignee in the case. The terms "other articles and necessaries," as used in the act, cannot be so construed as to embrace land, without doing violence to every meaning heretofore allowed those terms. It is quite clear, I think, that if among the property of the Bankrupt, none or not enough of the article specifically mentioned in the act to be exempted be found, then the Assignee may report as exempted other "articles and necessaries" to make up the amount required, or the deficiency (as the case may lie,) in the opinion of the Assignee. The whole not to exceed under any circumstances the value of Five Hundred Dollars. The suggestion of the Counsel for the Bankrupt would have much weight if it was a matter of discretion. But the Court can no sooner award an article or kind of propriety, not properly embraced within the terms used according to a fair construction, than it could exceed the sum prescribed. The exemptions provided for by the Bankruptcy Act originated from the same spirit that prompted the enactment of our Legislative provisions in favor of Widows of Intestates, awarding them provisions for their temporary support; and as that law restricts the Commissioners in the kind or species of property he shall exempt. Now it often occurs that this all important purpose of the Law would be defeated, if under no circumstances money could be exempted to a Bankrupt. Yet, from the language of the Law, if money could not be construed to be an article or a necessary, it would be quite clear, I think, that money could not be allowed. But it is as clear that money may be allowed, for it not unfrequently occurs that money is quite as necessary to the temporary subsistence of a Bankrupt and his family as any article that can be mentioned. As the widow of an Intestate upon the granting of administration is presumed to be entirely destitute of such articles and provisions as are necessary for her support, so the Bankruptcy Act presumes that every man who has been adjudged a Bankrupt has sworn truly and has surrendered all his property and estate. Then if this be correct he is alike destitute. Now suppose the Bankrupt has been a merchant, a banker, and has surrendered a large estate in "Choses in Action" and money, but not having been a housekeeper (but from choice, from motive of economy or otherwise,) he and his family, consisting of a wife and children, have been inmates of a boarding house—he does not own a bed, or a chair, or any article of provisions, consequently there is nothing of the kind in his schedule—surely it could not be successfully contended that some money would not be necessary for the temporary subsistence of such a family. Under these circumstances money may be exempted.

The Assignee must advertise the real estate mentioned in his report as exempted, and sell the same to the highest bidder, and apply the proceeds as the Law directs.

Let this be certified,

G. W. BROOKS,
U. S. Dist. Judge.

WHY NOT BE JUST AND FAIR?—When Gen. Gordon, of Georgia, one of the bravest and most distinguished of the Confederate Generals, declared in a speech that if Grant were elected President, and any opposition was made to his accession to the presidential chair, he would draw his own sword in his support, the extreme Radical papers find it convenient to ignore that significant avowal. But when some indiscreet Southern newspaper deals in wild talk, its mad nonsense is seized upon and circulated by every sectional paper in the North as an evidence of Southern sentiment. The truth is that the last thing on the face of the earth the Southern people desire or dream of is war. They are at a loss to understand how any one can sincerely hold an opposite idea. Neither the election of Gen. Grant nor any other man would lead to resistance in the South. Of all the prominent Republicans, Gen. Grant, so far as he is personally concerned, is most respected by the Southern people. The fact that he has the chief military prestige in the armies of the United States, instead of working to his prejudice, tends to elevate him with a military people. Even if the South desired to appeal to arms, it is as well aware of its inability to do so as its enemies can be. It seems strange that the North should be ignorant of the real state of Southern affairs and sentiment. This is the age of steam and telegraphs, yet Mr. John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, in his late brief and incisive speech at Greensboro', N. C., said "he had learned more of the Southern people and their feelings and sentiments the last two days than he could have learned in a life time in Massachusetts. He was astonished at the condition of the Southern people and their wasted, neglected fields. If the North could see it as he had done, all our trials would be at an end." When one of the most prominent and intelligent of the public men of Massachusetts concedes that he knew nothing of the real state of things in the South till he went there personally, what must be the ignorance of the mass of the population? This ignorance is the result of partisan misrepresentation, seizing and perverting to its own evil purposes those very agencies of diffusing intelligence which it was once hoped would make the different sections better acquainted and draw them nearer to each other. We dare say Mr. Adams is right when he says if the North could only see the real condition of things in the South as he had done, our trials would soon be at an end. The North would then be touched by the scene, and it would also see what wanton cruelty it is to ascribe to this helpless people purposes of self-annihilation by another war. The South wants no war for any cause, but if Gen. Grant is elected, the South is far more likely to assist, as indicated by Gen. Gordon, in putting down resistance than in offering it.—Baltimore Sun.

The Charleston Mercury is credibly informed that the Democrats of Marion have purchased and presented to each of the fifteen negroes who had the courage to go to the polls and vote with and for their old masters, with the title deeds to forty acres of good land near that town.

of good merchantable Corn.

At the same time and place, I shall also offer for sale at public Vendue, the valuable lands belonging to the estate of said Witherspoon, consisting of three tracts, to-wit: One tract in Wilkes county, at the mouth of Lit, containing 900 acres, embracing as valuable water power as there is in Western North Carolina. Two tracts in Caldwell county, both adjoining, and containing about 1,500 acres.

To persons acquainted with these lands, no description is necessary. To persons unacquainted with them, it will be enough to say that they are situated and lying on the Yadkin River, in a pleasant and healthy country, surrounded by good society, and are very valuable, embracing in the whole, 3000 acres of excellent river bottom.

The sale will be on a credit of six months. Other particulars will be made known on the day of sale.

Don't forget to supply yourselves with tickets. The Clubs or Executive Committee of each County must look out for this, and the candidates must not omit it.

The Electoral ticket, Congressional ticket, and if a vacancy in the Senate or House of Representatives is to be filled, in any of the Districts, the ticket for Senator or Representative, must be all on the same slip or ballot. Those who order tickets must be sure to give special directions, name, County or District for the Congressional or Legislative ticket. The Electoral ticket will be the same all over the State.

MEETING OF MIDDLE AND WESTERN WARD CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the Western Ward Seymour and Blair Club at Mr. Howell's school house, to-night, at 8 o'clock.—Every member of the Club is respectfully urged to attend, as business of importance will be transacted. The members of the Middle Ward Club are also respectfully invited to attend.

CAUGHT.—John Cameron, (negro,) alias Cameron Austin, was arrested to day on the charge of stealing a cow from Ransom Pool. The warrant was placed in the hands of officer Bryan, and Cameron has been provided with quarters in the cage.

REGISTRATION.

The Registrar's books will be opened at the Court House in Raleigh on Thursday next, the 15th day of October, from 9 o'clock A. M. until 4 o'clock, P. M., and will remain open each day thereafter, (Sundays excepted,) until the day of election.

The Act requires all to register who expect to vote at the coming election. Former registration does not entitle one to vote. New registration is required. In order to prevent confusion and to facilitate business on the day of election, it is hoped that every voter will have his name on the books before that day. J. P. ANDREWS,
Registrar Raleigh Precinct.

We publish the above for the information of all. Let every man be sure to register.—None are disfranchised who have ever been entitled to vote.

SUPERIOR COURT—NEW SYSTEM.—Our people will be made to feel keenly the change in our Court system under the Radical regime. We are assured that the county of Wake will not have to pay less than $4,000 for the expenses of Judge Watt's Court in this city for two weeks. This is only one of the objections to the new system, yet the expence is a strong one. We must have a change and return to our old system as soon as it can be properly effected.

CONDEMNED.—A negro man calling himself Robert Williams was tried and convicted upon the charge of stealing the horse of Mrs. T. G. Whitaker, of this county, and a mule who is owner we do not recollect.—Judge Watts sentenced him to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. He is to be confined in the county jail until the Penitentiary is prepared to receive convicts.

LODGE.—We are requested to state that Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218 will hold a convocation at the Hall, this evening at the usual hour of meeting.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

W. M. Robbins, Esq., Elector for the 6th District on the Seymour and Blair Ticket, will address the people at the following times and places:

Taylorsville, Monday,	Oct.	19.
Statesville, Tuesday,	"	20.
Newton, Wednesday,	"	21.
Lincolnton, Thursday,	"	22.
Charlotte, Thursday night,	"	22.
Grassy Creek, Saturday,	"	24.
Concord, Tuesday,	"	27.
Powder Spring, (Iredell) Wednesday,	"	28.
Park's Store, Thursday,	"	29.
Hamptonville, Friday,	"	30.
Yadkinville, Saturday,	"	31.

The Elector on the Grant Ticket will find Mr. Robbins willing to divide time with him, at any of these appointments.

HO! FOR THE FAIR!—The Henderson Fair opens to-day. F. K. Nash, Esq., of Orange, delivers the address on Thursday. The people of Granville, Franklin and Warren will be largely represented, as will other portions of the State.

The fare on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will be but one price going and returning. The regular mail train leaves Raleigh quarter past 9 o'clock, A. M., and arrives at Henderson at 36 minutes past 11 o'clock. The accommodation train returning, will leave Henderson 45 minutes after 4 o'clock, P. M., arriving at Raleigh at 9 P. M.

FINE APPLES.—We are indebted to our friend Mr. Thomas Bailey, of this county, for a fine lot of apples raised on his premises, of several varieties, equal to any apples which we get from the North. Our people ought to give more attention to fruit.

MAINE—THE RADICALS LOSE 10,000. At last, says the Albany Argus, the truth about the Maine election begins to come out. All over the country the Radical press have been shouting over "23,000 to 25,000 majority." The telegrams sent to the Associated Press on the morning after the election, and for a fortnight afterwards, were thoroughly false. The object was to revive the sinking heart of the Radical party throughout the country, and particularly in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. It now appears that, even without counting the thirty-seven plantations in Aroostook county—which, being largely Democratic, are on some pretext of irregularity, thrown out—even then the Republican majority of 28,000 in the last contested election falls to 18,000!

The Eastern Argus (Portland) of October 3, says:

Returns from all the towns and plantations in the State where votes were counted last year gives the following result:

Pillsbury,	57,049
Chamberlain	74,823
Radical majority,	17,774

This majority will be still further decreased by returns to come in.

STILL DRILLING.—It is a well known and unconcealed fact that the negroes in this city still retain their military organizations, notwithstanding that Congress has prohibited it, and now wait not for the cover of night to conceal their operations, but drill openly in the daytime. In this they are counseled and encouraged by those who claim to be the authorities of a de facto State government, and even have the sanction and countenance of the executive head.

What does this organization look like if not war? Where is the necessity? But they are of the "trooly loil" stripe, and law or no law, they are perfectly right! Oh yes, the immaculate can do no wrong! But let a peaceable and law-abiding citizen, or a number of citizens, in the face of these threatening circumstances, combined with others still more threatening, dare to purchase arms for the defence of themselves and families, and lo! it is treasonable, they design to break the peace and resist the Government by force. It is made a political cry, and is said to proceed from opposite political motives. Forthwith the Governor is officially informed that it means treason, and he petitions troops to place the law abiding citizens at the mercy of the lawless, under the very plea of peace. Certainly Radicalism can do no wrong, and the negroes can organize, drill, arm, and discipline themselves; but we, we cannot purchase an arm for our own protection, but we mean war. Oh yes!—Wil. Journal.

POLITICAL VIEWS OF CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.—In conversation with a friend today Chief Justice Chase took occasion to deny, in the most emphatic manner, the statements made by republican papers a day or two since that he favored the election of Grant and Colfax. The Chief Justice thinks it due to his official position to stand aloof from the coming political struggle for the Presidency. In the conversation had to day Mr. Chase stated that the excesses practised by the republican party during the past two or three years did not by any means meet his approval, and he is of the opinion that these extreme measures had the effect of driving thousands of moderate republicans from their ranks. In alluding to the Democratic candidates he said he regarded Mr. Seymour as an able and honest man, and did not doubt that if elected he would administer the affairs of the government upon strictly constitutional principles.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

CHEERING NEWS FROM LITTLE DELAWARE.—Later news from Delaware is still more gratifying than that first published.—The vote in Wilmington was the largest ever polled at an Inspector's election in the city, being 2,611, and being 132 more than was polled at the city election in September. The Radicals used great exertions by sending out circulars and hugging their men to come out, but the more they came the worse it seemed to be for them. Newcastle county gives a Democratic majority of 659. In Wilmington there is a Democratic gain of 305 since last month. The Democrats elect a majority of the Inspectors, and it is certain that in November, Wilmington will give Seymour and Blair a handsome majority. The majority in the State will go over three thousand.

DEATH OF THE HON. JESSE A. BYNUM.—We learn from the Alexandria Democrat that this venerable and esteemed gentlemen died on the 23d. ult., at his residence in Rapides parish. The Democrat says: He had been in failing health for some time past, and his death was not unexpected. He was about 73 years of age. Mr. Bynum was a native of North Carolina, and was educated at Princeton College. In early life he occupied quite a prominent position among the politicians of his native State. In 1835 he was was elected to Congress, and served, by successive re-elections, for eight years. After his retirement from public life Mr. Bynum removed to Louisiana and settled in this parish, where he devoted himself to agricultural pursuits until the time of his death.—N. O. Picayune.

FLAG RAISING AT KITTRELS'.

KITTRELLS, N. C., Oct. 12, 1868.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—There was presented, on Saturday, to the Seymour and Blair Club, of this place, a handsomely made and beautifully painted flag. A Committee was appointed to wait upon the young ladies of the College, where the flag was presented by Miss Rosa Thaxton, in behalf of the ladies. The Committee then returned to the depot, when the flag was raised amid enthusiastic cheers for Seymour and Blair.

Mr. W. W. Jones, of Henderson, was then vociferously called for, who came forward and delivered one of the most eloquent speeches that it has ever been our good fortune to listen to. As to the carpet-baggers, there were none present, and the few native scallawags, with more brass than brains, who have heretofore been whining around with the blacks, held their heads low, and called upon their Africanized voters to shield them from the view of all honest Conservatives.

Capt. B. A. Capehart and J. B. Crudup, Esq., were then called for, who delivered spicy addresses. The evening passed off very pleasantly. Many thanks to the ladies for their beautiful flag!

At the close of the above, appropriate resolutions were passed, denouncing the infamous slander, and slanderer of the ladies of the South, in the Raleigh Standard, of the 19th, Sept., 1868.

Watauga All Right!

BOONE, WATAUGA CO., Oct. 6, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You may place Watauga down for very large gains. Yesterday, the day of our Superior Court, the Hon. A. H. Jones and Parson Trivett, from Jefferson, made speeches, and having refused to divide time, as soon as they closed loud and repeated calls were made for W. Maj. H. Malone who responded in one of the happiest efforts of his life. His anecdotes and sarcasm had the most complete and withering effect. Parson Trivett left the Court House, got his horse and left the town in disgust. Jones claimed to explain the double-faced platform of the Radical party by saying that when the platform was adopted the Howard amendment was not a part of the Constitution, but now Ohio would be subject to all the restrictions of other States if she refused negro suffrage. Maj Malone replied then the party has either changed its policy since the adoption of the platform or the platform was in direct opposition to the Constitution. Jones disclaimed endorsing many of the more odious policies of the party. If Jones had Maj Malone after him a few days, he would quit the canvass, for I never have seen such a complete castigation in my life. Watauga is full of enthusiasm.

CONSERVATIVE.

A RICH SCENE—"LET US HAVE PEACE!"

During the session of Court in this place, last Wednesday, there was one of the richest scenes presented within the Bar, that an audience would like to witness. Happening to be present, which is somewhat unusual, and enjoying the surprise and merriment which it produced, we cannot refrain from giving publicity to it. Now, what was it? Well if we must let the "cat out of the wallet," here goes. A negro, ah! excuse us, we intended saying a co'ored man, (t. b.) large size, actually hugged the Hon. N. Boyden—within the Bar at that. Perhaps it would have been more appropriate to have said embraced, as that is the term used in refined conversation, but we have such a habit of calling things by their proper names, that we cannot oblige etiquette in this case. Ask Z. B. V., whenever you have a chance, and he will tell what he saw. "Let us have peace."—Statesville American.

AN EX CONFEDERATE.—The 'Judge' mentioned below will be remembered by many of our readers as having been the Provost Marshal General and Military Governor of this city in 1861, during its occupation by the Confederates. At that time he was conspicuous as a "fuss and-feathers" hero, covered with gold lace, and always carrying a hugh sabre, which rattled as he walked, and struck terror to the infants.—Look at him now:

"'Judge' Cantwell made a Radical speech to the negroes in Wilmington, on Wednesday night. The Star says that he traced the history of the World from the Garden of Eden to the banks of Tar River, and that it was difficult to tell whether the 'Judge's' effort was a historical narrative, a literary address or a lecture on Commerce and Manufactures.—Norfolk Virginian.

HOW THE CARPET-BAGGERS LOVE THE NEGRO!—The Selma (Ala.) Times, commenting upon the love of the carpet baggers for the negro, gives a few instances in which they have evinced it. It says:

How the carpet baggers do love the poor negro!

Here is Morse, Radical Attorney General for the State of Alabama, and Radical candidate for the State at large on the Grant and Colfax electoral ticket, who beat a negro almost to death and then rubbed salt in his wounds!

Here is Crowe, Radical candidate for the State at large on the Grant and Colfax electoral ticket, who murdered three or four negroes in Mississippi!

Here is Harrington, Radical member of the Legislature, Radical Speaker of the Radical House of Representatives, who stole and sold into slavery a whole ship load of the free negroes of Alabama!

A colored preacher in Georgia has been arrested for cloaking one of his children to death.

ARRIVAL OF HON. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS IN COLUMBIA—HE ADDRESSES AN IMMENSE MEETING OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRACY.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 13, M.

Hon. John Quincy Adams last night addressed an immense meeting of the South Carolina Democracy in Columbia. His speech was long and elaborate breathing the same moderate and conciliatory spirit as his recent letter. In referring to the pending political struggle he said:

"Your relations to the political parties at the North have a very important bearing upon your fate, at all events just now, and demands careful meditation. Most of you, doubtless, regard the success of the Democratic party as essential to your release from your present situation, but it is my duty to remind you that men, in your position, have no right to be bigoted partisans.—You must, of course, feel a deep interest in the success of those who espouse your cause and you may properly exert all legitimate influence to promote their success, but you ought not to shut the door to aid from any source. I have already deprecated unreasonable and undistinguishing hostility to the Republican party. I would now warn you against an absolute and exclusive devotion to any party.

If the Democracy succeed in electing their candidates you will be subjected to temptations as trying as the demand upon your sufferance may prove, in case General Grant is chosen—Hasty, ill-considered, passionate or violent action in the event of Democratic success, would be almost sure in the end to turn to your discomfiture and render your last estate worse than the first. And yet it will require a good deal of self command to control the reaction from this depression. But the country, in that event, will be so severely divided, and so greatly excited, that a small thing may induce a terrible catastrophe. On the other hand, in case of General Grant's election, you will be called on to exercise a while longer your patience, and forbearance. I am sure that it will be rewarded in the end.

I don't believe that G n. Grant is your enemy. I feel sure that he feels kindly in his course to you. A large mass of Republicans will help you if you will do your best to help yourselves. A great majority of all the North only want to be sure that it is safe to take you cordially by the hand once more. Ellis then your time in either event, possess your souls in silence, call to your aid that grandest of all human qualities, self-control, and all will yet be well.

Mr. Adams' address was well received. Speeches were afterwards delivered by Hampton, and others.

The meeting was the largest ever held in the State.

FROM PHILADELPHIA—GREAT EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY—FIGHTING.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13, M.

Considerable excitement in the suburbs. In the Sixteenth Ward, a boy, aged sixteen, was fatally shot by a Deputy Sheriff. In the twentieth Ward, heavy fighting reported between the police and Sheriff's. When the polls were opened, at seven o'clock, long lines of voters were present at each voting place. Indications of a heavy vote. Both parties claims the State, with chances favoring the Democrats.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, rejoicing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and adopting to be removed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise to the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United states as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the consumer and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great eleemosynary) and all political institution tablished to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the coordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the naturalized citizens against the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated the most sacred pledge made which alone was ratified the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disfranchised in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their bases, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to destroy any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely obscured, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention It palters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of this flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au., 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11 751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8 474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.
